

c) Kenya Revenue Authority (ETR CASE)

The Law Society of Kenya filed an Application, No. NAL. 79 of 2006 (UR. 44/2006) against Legal Notice no. 110 of 2004 and the Public Notice advertised on 16th March 2005 which had required the installation and use of Electronic Tax Registers in all businesses. The Law Society of Kenya instructed Mr. John Ougo to take up the matter.

A consent agreement between the Law Society of Kenya and the Kenya Revenue Authority was filed on 26th May 2006 staying the implementation of this notice for legal practitioners. Further, the Kenya Revenue Authority confirmed in writing that, all its Station Managers had been briefed on the position pertaining to the exemption granted to LSK Members, allowing them to file returns ordinarily, without attaching Electronic Tax Register receipts.
