

Contemporary Issues in Arbitration by Paul Ngotho, FCIArb, Chartered Arbitrator

This newly published book on Arbitration covers a uniquely diverse range of matters including:

- An in-depth exposition of common problems like pathological arbitration clauses and the claiming, defending and awarding of interest in arbitration.
- Practical solutions to some of challenges facing arbitrators in Africa and elsewhere.
- Focus on the arbitration of disputes in specific industries like oil and gas, insurance, real estate and construction.

It is loaded with Kenyan examples, case law and anecdotes from the author's practice as an arbitrator. As Chief Bayo Ojo, SAN, CON, FCIArb, Chartered Arbitrator and Former Attorney General of Nigeria says in the foreword,

From the first chapter through “Challenges Facing Arbitrators in Africa” to “Pathological Arbitration Clauses...”, Mr Ngotho takes the reader from the elementary to the most advanced concepts in arbitration, guiding him or her through the current antecedents of the law and the future.
