RISKHOUSE INTERNATIONAL- ASSET TRACING

Asset tracing plays a critical role in enforcement of favorable judgments obtained from court by identifying and tracing the judgment debtor’s assets aiding in successful execution of the judgment.

The exercise takes the form of. -

Identifications of movable and immovable assets

Mapping the asset types and related owners

Verification of the asset ownership

Establish the Subject’s source of income e.g. Employment

Identification of the subject’s liabilities

Detailed analysis of investments in fixed assets and investment pattern in subsidiaries, if any to obtain leads of assets, and further to establish affiliates of other entities

At Riskhouse International, our asset tracing and recovery service is led by a team of highly qualified investigators who have the knowledge and know-how required in tracing assets. The team, which includes a team of lawyers with experience in debt restructuring and insolvency, play a critical role in offering practical strategies for the appropriate legal remedies that an entity can adopt in the recovery of the assets or the fruits of its judgment.

STATEMENT / CMJA, CLA AND CLEA JOINT STATEMENT ON THE PUBLIC ATTACKS ON THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE JUDICIARY IN KENYA

The CMJA, CLA and CLEA (the Associations) are deeply concerned about the recent attacks on the independence of the Judiciary in Kenya including by the President of Kenya. The attacks follow judgments made by the courts in litigation challenging government decisions.

We urge the Government of Kenya to respect the authority and independence of the judiciary and ensure that court decisions are respected and complied with and that due process is followed in line with the Kenya's constitution and its international obligations regarding any investigation of judicial officers for alleged corruption.

We support the Statements made by the Hon. Chief Justice, the Judicial Services Commission and the Law Society of Kenya of 2,3 and 4 January 2023.

Chapter I of the Commonwealth (Latimer House) Principles (2003) states: "Each Commonwealth country's Parliaments, Executives and Judiciaries are the guarantors in their respective spheres of the rule of law, the promotion and protection of fundamental human rights and the entrenchment of good governance based on the highest standards of honesty, probity and accountability." The Commonwealth Charter states in Chapter VI that: "We recognize the importance of maintaining the integrity of the roles of the Legislature, Executive and Judiciary. These are the guarantors in their respective spheres of the rule of law, the promotion and protection of fundamental human rights and adherence to good governance."

To this end, the Authority has reviewed, updated and developed new Standard Tender Documents and Formats while incorporating changes in the Act, the Regulations and international best practices.

Despite all the measures, both internal and external audit reports frequently mention cases of non-compliance. This course therefore aims to provide participants with an overview of the applicable legal system related to contracting for the procurement of goods and services. It will explain the legal requirements and provide practical discussion on drafting documents for a procurement, to allow participants create contracts that are legally binding, identifying key legal risks and highlighting when specialist advice is needed.

FOCUS AREAS shall include;

- Overview of the Standard Tender documents: For procurement of goods, consulting and Non-consulting services and performance-based contracts /works.
- A review of common risk areas in procurement documentation /contracting.
- Judicial interpretation of various procurement disputes;

TRAINING METHODOLOGY

This practical and results-oriented course is based on adult learning concept. It will be presented using a combination of interactive presentations, case studies, participant activities and exercises to maximize the impact of the learning experience. Participants will have ample time to consider the ideas and apply the skills discussed.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the training participants will add value to their organization by being able to:

- Adopt the appropriate standard procurement documents within their institutions
- Explain how terms are incorporated in the contract and interpreted by the courts to ensure their organizations interests are protected
- Identify key legislation which shapes contracting behaviour
- Evaluate applicable remedies in the event of a dispute

The seminar is recommended specially for: In-house counsel, advocates, and procurement professionals, accounting officers, internal auditors, external auditors, compliance managers, engineering, operational, and maintenance, personnel who are involved in the planning, and execution of purchases and contracts, end-users involved in setting specifications and all others who are involved in the planning, evaluation, preparation, and management of purchases that cover the acquisition of materials, equipment, and services.

REMINDER: VERIFICATION OF VOTERS LIST FOR THE LSK ELECTIONS SCHEDULED TO BE HELD ON 29TH FEBRUARY 2024

The Law Society of Kenya is scheduled to hold elections on 29th February 2024, for the following positions:

1. All members of the Law Society of Kenya Council (2024-2026);
2. Law Society of Kenya Male Representative to the Judicial Service Commission; and
3. Members of the Advocates Disciplinary Committee.

Pursuant to Regulation 35(1) of the Law Society of Kenya General Regulations, 2020, the Secretary is required to publish the list of voters at least 45 days before the date set for elections for inspection by members. The Law Society of Kenya List of Voters 2024, which can be accessed through the link, Voters List contains names of 15,701 members who are eligible to vote in the upcoming elections by virtue of their names having been entered in the Roll of Advocates and having taken out practising certificates as at 29th December 2023, in line with Regulation 35(3) of the Law Society of Kenya General Regulations 2020.

The list of voters is arranged in alphabetical order, beginning with the surname and town of practice. Pursuant to Regulation 35(2) of the Law Society of Kenya (General) Regulations 2020, members will only vote at the member's designated principal place of practice. Regulation 35(6) provides that the Secretary shall submit the list of voters to the Electoral body, where applicable (IEBC), immediately upon expiry of the period limit for verification of the register by members, for preparation of the polling register.
